

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1	Introduction.....	7
2	Comparative perspectives and mutual influences in historical research on Colonial Black Africa.....	41
	2.1 Comparing structures, comparing processes: Does comparison make sense for Colonial regimes in Africa?.....	41
	2.2 Looking beyond borders? Colonial neighbours and mutual influences	56
3	Authority	69
	3.1 Styling and Integrating the Traditional Ruler	69
	3.2 'Modernity' and the Educated Contender: Myth and Reality	91
4	Challenges	111
	4.1 African Nationalism	111
	4.2 Looking for the Communist Subversion	134
	4.3 Exploitation, Paternalism and Reformism	150
5	Affinities	177
	5.1 Introduction: Networks of Information.....	177
	5.2 In the storm: Portuguese and French diplomatic co-operation in colonial questions, 1930-1944.....	181
	5.3 A worn-down system? French views on Portuguese successes and malfunctions, 1945-1949.....	190
	5.4 The assimilationist brother? Portuguese colonial re-orientation and the French model, 1945-1956.....	211
	5.5 Co-operation in Practice: French and Portuguese in border regions and involuntary indirect 'native policy'	219
	5.6 A Portuguese option? French colonial administrators before reform, 1950-1956.....	232
	5.7 A discreet manipulation? The transfer of power in the mirror of Portuguese non-compromise policy, 1957-1963.....	251
	5.8 A liberal precursor? Portuguese reformism and French liberalisation in Black Africa, 1956-1963	263
6	Conclusion	287